

ARCHAEOLOGY MONTH 2007

SWEET DIGS ARCHAEOLOGY OF SUGAR MILLS

Saturday, March 31

MOAS Lecture Series

10:00am, 11:00am, & 12:00pm

Dunlawton Ruins

Tour & Reception 3-5pm

MOAS Lecture Series

- 10am "Plantations along the Old Kings Road",
Ted Payne, American Preservation Consultants Inc.
- 11am "Sweet Sugar--The Architecture of the Sugar Works of Northeast Florida", Lucy Wayne, SouthArc, Inc.
- 12 pm "Perpetually Boiling: Sugar Production in the West Indies and the Archaeological Investigation of the Sugar Mill on Guana Island, British Virgin Islands",
Chuck Miede, Lighthouse Archaeological Maritime Program(LAMP)

Dunlawton Sugar Mill at the Botanical Gardens of Volusia

3-5pm activities:

- Tour the Ruins with Hershel Shepard
- Experience a Seminole War period interpretation by Joe Vetter
- Tour the Volusia County Botanical Gardens
- Dig-in to the information tables featuring regional public archaeology, county parks, and the Port Orange Historic Trust
- Enjoy the reception table sponsored by the Botanical Gardens of Volusia, Inc.

For more information, contact:
Christy Pritchard, Outreach Coordinator,
Florida Public Archaeology Network, NE
904-819-6498 cpritchard@flagler.edu